TODAY WE ASKED THE QUESTION...
How do show others that I care about and love them?

WE FOUND THE ANSWER IN...
1 Samuel 25:1-42; John 21:1-19

TODAY THE BIG THING WE LEARNED WAS THAT...
I can be gentle

TO KEEP ME THINKING, YOU SHOULD ASK ME THIS QUESTION...

Big kids: How do you feel when friends yell at you or hit you? How can we control ourselves so we don't act that way back?

Small kids: How fun is it when your friends yell or play rough with you? Is it better when they are gentle? What is a gentle voice and a gentle action?

TO REINFORCE WHAT WE LEARNED, WE SHOULD...

Big and small kids: Do a spoon-in-mouth walk, carrying an egg in the spoon from point A to point B. Encourage gentle walking. Describe how being too rough can hurt the egg. Describe how if we're too rough with words/play, we can hurt people.

EVERY BEDTIME THIS WEEK, WE SHOULD PRAY...

Thank you God for being gentle with us.
Please help me to be gentle with others.
In Jesus' name, Amen!
